Growing on 55 Years of Tradition and Corvette Enjoyment

March Edition, 2015

EDITOR'S NOTE: Our winter break is almost over. The club calendar is filling up with lots of activities, racing, car shows, and meet-n-eats. Please check out what we have going on and plan to attend. The SWR race calendar is listed in this newsletter, there are a few events where the location is to be determined, but I will update those as we get the information. Gene Holtz has provided us with a schedule of car shows through the end of June. Hopefully we have something on the calendar for everyone. Remember if you attend any event this year we would appreciate an article and pictures.

Blue Bars is still on schedule to be available online. You may notice that the Officers page appears twice in the winter issue. Reason for this is so that when Blue Bars becomes available on-line, the page with the Officers personal information can be easily removed to avoid “privacy issues”.

NCCC History Memorabilia has been donated by many current and past NCCC Members since 2008 when preparation for NCCC's 50th Anniversary was kicked off. Because of NCCC Member generosity, there are roughly 1,200 copies of Blue Bars that have been organized and are available to any NCCC Member that would like to claim one or many of the past issues. The list of issues that are available can be found on the List of Blue Bars Issues 1962-2014 linked under Blue Bars on the History of NCCC page. Desired issues will not be mailed, but may be picked up by the Member, their Governor or one of their Regional Officers at the Governors Meetings or at the 2015 NCCC Convention in Lake Harmony, PA. Deadline for claiming the issues(s) will be November 1, 2015 with final delivery scheduled for the November Governors Meeting. Those interested in acquiring any should contact the NCCC Webmaster.

NCCC currently has 16,991 members and 2,508 FCOA members

Joe Szijarto - aka Buttercup

January 21, 12 Corvettes and 2 other vehicles, met at McDonalds on the Northwest Highway and Council Road. We drove to Eishen's in Okarche and ate chicken – lots of chicken. We drove on North a short distance to Kingfisher, where the Seay Mansion and Chisholm Trail Museum are located. Joining us were Phil Long, Joe & Jan Szijarto, Russell & Carol Smith, Alan & Glenda Brown, Charles & Benna Sharp, Sam & Vicki Burgess, Lewis & Linda Crowder, Mike & Grace Fozdar, Ron & Lou McCubbins, Mike & Jody Moore, Pat Pierre, Steve & Marilyn Moore, Brett Ruston & 2 sons, Bob Schneider & Tish, Ron & Jeanne Ruston.

The Chisholm Trail Museum is located along what was once the greatest cattle trail in the world. The museum shows the history of this cattle trail and the early pioneer settlers who homesteaded in Kingfisher County after the Land Run of 1889. In addition to the main museum is the Governor Seay Mansion built in 1892, home of the 2nd Territorial Governor.
